

Brandon School Third Grade Students Busy This Spring!

Submitted by Third Grade Teacher Eric Bartelme

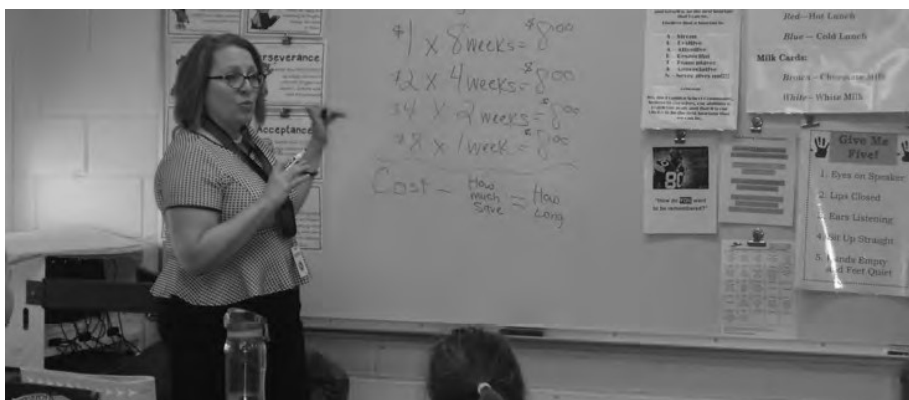

Mikey Rossberg and Kendra Yunto are ready to present their space research topics. Mikey researched the Canadarm, an arm that helps astronauts move large objects in space, and Kendra researched what it's like to live in space.

Drew Henning, Jeramiah Stephens, and Dylan Lichtenwald stir and taste-test their chocolate milk as they work through the steps for a writing activity on how to make chocolate milk.

Marianne Laska, a Ripon College pre-service teacher, completed a one-day-per-week clinical experience in Mr. Bartelme's classroom first semester. She loved working with the students so much she asked to volunteer once a week second semester. Hunter Kreuziger, Kendra Yunto, Jeramiah Stephens, Cade Henke, and Drew Henning work on a reading activity together.

Monica Walk, from Fox Valley Savings Bank, presents a lesson on saving and spending money wisely.

Briana Gomez and Madelyn Taplin gently pet a rabbit at Laconia's FFA Day on the Farm.

Colton Postotnik enjoys milking a cow at Laconia's FFA Day on the Farm.

Mr. Bartelme releases students' carts down a ramp to test each cart's distance traveled. The class watches each cart with anticipation.
