Please remind your students they must bring and wear their own face coverings to school each day and wear them appropriately throughout the day.

New Procedure For Receiving Report Cards - Beginning with the 1st quarter, report cards will be shared with parents through PowerSchool. If you are currently able to access your student's grades through PowerSchool you're all set; otherwise, please see the attached steps on how to set up access to PowerSchool. Instructions for viewing report cards will be emailed next week when reports cards are available.
