Attention Junior Parents - Juniors will be taking the ACT on Tuesday, March 9. Breakfast will be served to Juniors at 7:30am. A letter in regard to the ACT assessment was mailed to all parents of Junior students. A copy of this letter can be found in the February 18 Weekly Parent Email.

Parents of current 8th-11th graders- Most students have now submitted their course selections for the next school year. You can view those course selections in PowerSchool. Any changes must be submitted in writing to Laconia School Counselor, Dawn Barber by Friday, March 5 at barbdaw@rbsd.k12.wi.us.

Bridging Brighter Smiles - next visit to Laconia will be March 11. For more information about this program see attached flyer.

Open Enrollment Applications are accepted through April 30 -
Attached is a flyer with more information.

Broadband Internet Access Survey - COVID-19 brought to light the lack of accessibility to internet by Fond du Lac County residents, which has led the County to be more proactive in addressing this important issue. Fond du Lac County partnered with Envision Greater Fond du Lac, the county-wide chamber of commerce and economic development organization, to conduct a survey of household internet access and use in the County. Attached is a letter with the link to access the Broadband Internet Access Survey.
